There are two holidays celebrated in October in the United States: Columbus Day and Halloween. Columbus Day is on October 11, although it is celebrated on the second Monday of the month. Halloween is on October 31.

Columbus Day recognizes the anniversary of Christopher Columbus's arrival in America. It became a federal holiday in 1937, although it has been celebrated unofficially since the late 18th century.

Columbus Day is a national holiday in many countries in the Americas and elsewhere which officially celebrates the anniversary of Christopher Columbus' arrival in and European discovery of the American Continent on October 12, 1492. The landing is celebrated as Columbus Day in the United States, as Día de la Raza in many countries in Latin America and as Día de la Hispanidad and Fiesta Nacional in Spain, where it is also the religious festivity of la Virgen del Pilar. It is also celebrated as Día de las Américas in Belize and Uruguay, as Discovery Day in the Bahamas, as Día del Respeto a la Diversidad Cultural in Argentina and as Giornata Nazionale di Cristoforo Colombo or Festa Nazionale di Cristoforo Colombo in Italy and in the Little Italys around the world. These holidays have been celebrated unofficially since the late 18th century and officially in various countries since the early 20th century.

Halloween is celebrated on the eve of the Christian holiday of All Hallows' Day. This was traditionally a day for remembering the dead. In the United States, it is typically celebrated by dressing up in costumes, telling scary stories and eating candy.

Wasps in mailboxes.

I've had a request from our mail lady for people in our community to once a week check out your mailbox. She has been getting stung at houses delivering mail by wasps that have made nests in or on mailboxes. Thank you so much as she really doesn't want to get stung more than she has too or preferably not at all.

Congratulations to Egan Segers on this amazing catch today here at the lake!!!! Definitely a good one. Come on out and swim, kayak, canoe, picnic, fish and just have fun in so many ways at the beautiful Boat Lake!!!

Put a Pizza on the Grill

The grill's intense heat is a lot like a restaurant pizza oven. Keep all your toppings light and cook them beforehand so they heat evenly on the grill. Lightly brush the crust with oil and sear both sides on the grill. Next, add the toppings and cover the grill. Cook about 3-7 minutes. Every minute, rotate the pizza 90 degrees to prevent burning. Whole-wheat crusts are healthier -- some recipes are specially made for grilling.

Skewered Fish

Skewers are great for cooking whole small fish like fresh sardines, which are loaded with heart-healthy fats. You can easily grill several fish at once. Insert one skewer through each fish near the base of the head. Insert a second skewer near the tail. That holds the fish firmly in place, so they're easy to turn. Brush them and the rack lightly with olive oil and cook the fish, turning once, just until they flake easily.

Grill-Worthy Veggies

Grilling is a great way to cook vegetables. High temperatures and quick cooking times help preserve their nutrients. Slice them thinly or in chunks for kebabs. The best veggies for the grill are sturdy and develop sweet flavors:

Sweet peppers (6-8 minutes each side)

Onions (5-7 minutes each side)

Zucchini and other summer squash (5 minutes each side)

Corn (25 minutes)

Portabella mushrooms (7-10 minutes per side)

Romaine lettuce hearts (3 minutes per side)

Grill Fruit for a Delicious Dessert

Grilling intensifies the sweetness of strawberries, peaches, pineapples, bananas, apples, pears, and other fruit. Cut fruit into pieces and spear them on skewers. Or wrap the pieces in foil. The trick is to cook with indirect heat. Turn down the gas or place the fruit on the edges of the grate. Cook the fruit only for a few minutes. Grill on low heat until it is hot and slightly golden.

Kebabs for Kids

Kebabs make fun finger food out of any meal, even dessert. Kids love the idea of food on a stick, so let them build their own. For safety, grill meat or fish, vegetables, and fruits on separate skewers. Bite-size chunks of tomatoes, zucchini, peppers, mushrooms, and onions are a good veggie combination.

Better Burgers

Thinner burgers are healthier burgers because they cook faster. Grill 1/2- to 3/4-inch patties over medium heat. They'll stay juicy if you don't smash them on the grill with a spatula, which forces the juices out. Add some chopped bell pepper, carrot, onion, or barbecue sauce for a juicier turkey burger. Prepared veggie burgers may crumble less than homemade ones. Other meatless meaties: juicy portabella mushrooms and marinated tofu.

If someone you don't know sends you a check and asks for money back, please be careful — you may become the victim of a popular scam.

What is a Fake Check Scam?

In a fake check scam, a person you don't know asks you to deposit a check — sometimes for several thousand dollars, and usually for more than you are owed — and send some of the money to another person. Some scammers will even try to convince you to give them your Online Banking credentials so that they can log in and make the deposit for you, using Mobile Deposit. Then they will tell you they deposited too much and ask you to send some back. Always remember that any legitimate business will NEVER ask you for your Online Banking credentials and these situations will always result in scamming you out of your money! The scammers always have a good story to explain why you can't keep all the money. They might say they need you to cover taxes or fees, you'll need to buy supplies, or something else.

Fake checks come in many forms. They might look like business or personal checks, cashier's checks, money orders, or a check delivered electronically. Here are a few examples:

Mystery shopping. Scammers pretend to hire people as mystery shoppers and tell them their first assignment is to evaluate a retailer that sells gift cards, money orders, or a money transfer service, like Western Union or MoneyGram. The shopper gets a check with instructions to deposit it in a personal bank account and wire it to someone else. But once the money is wired, the person on the other end can disappear.

Personal assistants. People apply online and get hired as personal assistants. They get a check and are told to use the money to buy gift cards or to buy equipment or supplies for their new client. Once the scammers get the gift card PIN numbers, they use them instantly, leaving the "personal assistant" without the money when the bank figures out the check is bad.

Car wrap decals. People interested in car wrap advertising are told to deposit checks and send money to decal installers — who don't exist.

Claiming prizes. Sweepstakes "winners" are given checks and told to send money to cover taxes, shipping and handling charges, or processing fees. But that's not how legitimate sweepstakes work.

Overpayments. People buying something from you online "accidentally" send a check for too much and ask you to refund the balance.

Fake Checks and Your Bank

By law, banks have to make deposited funds available quickly, usually within five business days. Even though the bank has made the funds available, that doesn't mean the check has necessarily "cleared" — it could still be a bad check. Fake checks can take weeks to be discovered and untangled. By that time, the scammer has any money you sent, and you're stuck paying the money back to the bank.

Your best bet: Don't rely on money from a check unless you know and trust the person you're dealing with.

How To Avoid a Fake Check Scam

Never use money from a check to send gift cards, money orders, or wire money to strangers or someone you just met. Many scammers demand that you send money through money transfer services like Western Union or MoneyGram, or buy gift cards and send them the PIN numbers. Once you wire money, or give someone the gift card PINs, it is like giving someone cash. It's almost impossible to get it back.

Toss offers that ask you to pay for a prize. If it's free, you shouldn't have to pay to get it.

Don't accept a check for more than the selling price. You can bet it's a scam.

Where To Report Fraud

If you think you've been targeted by a fake check scam, report it to:

The U.S. Postal Inspection Service
